

2014 A Golden Year

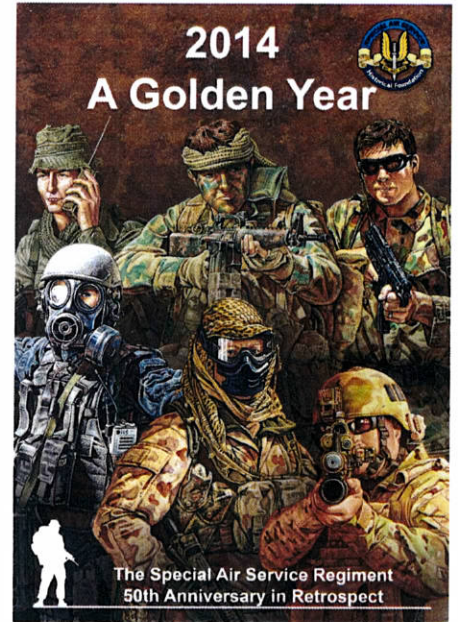

To celebrate the Regiment's 55th Birthday the SAS Historical Foundation has produced '2014': A Golden Year - The Special Air Service Regiment 50th Anniversary in Retrospect". This is an historical document capturing the events, images, speeches and messages sent to SASR.

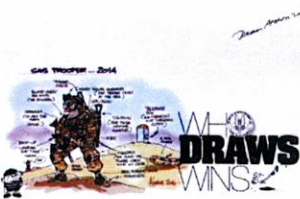

For those who were on hand during 2014 it is a walk down memory lane. For those who were not or were unable to attend every event it is an insight into what was a fantastic celebration. For those who may be involved in planning and organisation of future significant anniversary events it is a guide to what has and can be achieved.

Available in electronic form only and loaded onto a USB in the form of the Regiment's badge, it can be purchased from the SAS Historical Foundation for $30 (+$10 P&H).

The funds raised will contribute to construction of a new gallery in the History and Research Centre to display the SASR Art Collection, which was significantly increased in 2014.
