

SASRF Perth Gala Evening

12 August 2023

Grand Ballroom, Hyatt Regency Perth

Special Air Service Regiment (SASR)

Australia's Special Air Service Regiment has a unique and hazardous role within the Australian Defence Force. Operating under the motto 'Who Dares Wins' the Special Air Service Regiment (SASR) is a direct command unit of the Special Operations Command with a demanding role.

SASR personnel are specially selected and highly trained to act with discretion and discipline in situations that may have national and strategic consequences. Personnel are required to work in small teams for extended periods, often without external support.

The SASR is tasked to provide special operations capabilities in support of Australia's national interests. This includes providing unique capabilities to support sensitive strategic operations, special recovery operations, training assistance, special reconnaissance and precision strike and direct action. Additionally, other specialised elements of the Australian Defence Force, such as Naval and Air assets support SAS operations and training on a regular basis.

About the Special Air Service Resources Fund (SASRF)

The SASRF assists current and former members of the Australian Special Air Service Regiment, and their dependants, who are experiencing hardship as a result of their service with the SAS Regiment.

The Fund also assists the families of other Australian Defence Force personnel who are killed or disabled while working alongside the SAS Regiment in SASR controlled operations or training.

The main focus of assistance is education, but other needs such as health & wellbeing are also supported.
